

An Effective Lace Waist.

Medallion designs executed in applique upon a round-meshed net furnishes the foundation of this waist. There is a fitted lining of silk, featherboned to the figure, and a layer of chiffon beneath the lace gives a soft effect. The waist fashions in the back and bands of corded shirtings are applied with telling effect. The sleeve shows the popular wrist puff, and the shirtings are used in cap and cuff design.

Members were present: Mrs. Alf Derrick, Mrs. Moroni Iverson, Mrs. Charles Reader, Mrs. Edwin Sheets, Mrs. Earnest Smith, Mrs. Albert Paul, Miss Birdie Sheets.

Future Events.

Mrs. Wilbur W. Flagg entertains at a tea on Tuesday next in honor of her sister, Mrs. Jack Jevne of Los Angeles.

Members of the Reviewers' club will be entertained at luncheon by the president, Mrs. Charles D. Moore, one week from tomorrow.

A week from tomorrow night the annual meeting and parish supper will be given by the First Unitarian society. This has been an annual event with the Unitarians here for several years, and has always proved to be a most delightful affair. All members of the congregation and those interested in the Unitarian movement are cordially invited to attend this meeting, which will be held at Unity hall.

Miss Eva Snow will entertain the members of the J. J. club next Friday evening at her home.

Purely Personal.

Mrs. William Gibson Sharp and Mrs. Thomas B. Davis have returned to their New York homes after passing the holidays with their parents in this city.

Miss Grace Louise Emery is home from Europe, where she has been traveling and studying for the past eighteen months. She was accompanied from New York by her uncle, J. S. Bradford. Miss Emery will not make her formal debut in society until next season, when she promises to be one of the most popular buds in the social world.

Mrs. George Y. Wallace left Wednesday morning for St. Louis to visit for several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Tuttle.

Hon. George W. Barch has gone to the coast on a brief visit.

Miss Jasmine Young left last Wednesday at noon for San Francisco, where she will be the guest of Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick for some weeks.

Mrs. George M. Downey is expected home on Tuesday from Denver, where she has been visiting her son and daughter. She will be accompanied by her niece, Miss Gertrude McClintock of Chicago, who will visit here for several weeks.

Miss Beatrice Cheesman left yesterday for St. Louis, where she will resume her studies at Monticello.

Mrs. Walter Miles Harvey of Seattle is the guest of Mrs. Walter G. Filer. Mrs. Harvey was formerly Miss Edna Remington and was one of Salt Lake's most popular girls.

Mrs. R. H. Channing and little daughter leave during the coming week for a stay of some weeks on the coast.

Harold Fabian has gone back to Yale to resume his studies, having passed the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Fabian.

Miss Pearl Van Cott left during the week for Wellesley college after a three weeks' visit with her parents in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry S. Heath have gone to Washington and will be guests at the New Willard indefinitely.

Mrs. Beldin of San Francisco is in the city and will be the guest of Mrs. J. B. Walker for the remainder of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. George Phelps Holman left on Thursday for California, where they expect to remain until spring.

Emmett Moore left during the week for Stanford to resume his studies at the university.

Andrew Howat has returned to Golden, Colo., after passing the holidays with his parents in this city.

Mrs. H. D. Gue arrived yesterday from New York to be the guest of her sisters and brother, Miss Shearman, Mrs. Anna D. Katz and Harry Shearman. After a visit here Mrs. Gue will accompany Mrs. Katz to Boise, where she will visit for some weeks.

Walter Evans left Monday for Palo Alto to re-enter Stanford university, after a pleasant vacation with his parents in this city.

Mrs. James A. Miner has gone to San Francisco for a few weeks' visit.

Capt. and Mrs. H. D. Styer have returned to their post at Logan, after spending the holiday season with Maj. and Mrs. Wilkes.

Miss Beulah Bachman of Provo visited Salt Lake friends last week.

During the absence of her parents in the East, Miss Cora Snyder is a guest at the home of Mrs. Pike and Miss Pike on First street.

Miss Emily Whitney of this city entertained her cousins, the Misses Ada and Cora Dusenberry, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jevne of Los Angeles are guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Murray.

The Misses Nell and Drusilla Fennimore have gone to Los Angeles, to be gone the remainder of the winter.

Mrs. J. F. George of San Francisco, but formerly a resident of this city, is visiting here for a short time.

Mrs. Harry La Motte and son left during the past week for Philadelphia to join Dr. La Motte.

Solomon Siegel has returned from an extended visit in Europe, his health having been entirely restored. Mrs. Siegel and her sons are expected to return some time during the coming week.

After a pleasant visit of several weeks in the East, Mrs. C. Ira Tuttle is again at home.

Gov. and Mrs. Heber M. Wells left yesterday for a brief visit in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. James Orin Reber have issued cards announcing the birth of their little daughter, Salena Virginia Reber.

Miss Katherine Creary is home from Fort D. A. Russell, where she spent several pleasant weeks.

Mrs. Byron Groo is home from Ohio, where she has spent some months with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Hathaway.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hill, who have been visiting on the coast for some time, returned to the city yesterday.

Miss Etta Powers, who has been a student at Radcliffe college for the past six months, is expected home early during the coming week.

Dr. and Mrs. William D. Donohoe sail today from New York for a year's stay in London and other European cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fennimore have moved to 222 East South Temple street, where they will hereafter receive their friends.

Mrs. Robert Forrester is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Kimball of Scotland.

E. B. Wicks has gone to California, to be away several days.

Mrs. Henry M. Crowther is home from Eureka, where she has been visiting friends for a few weeks.

Frank D. Hobbs returned early in the week from a three weeks' visit on the coast.

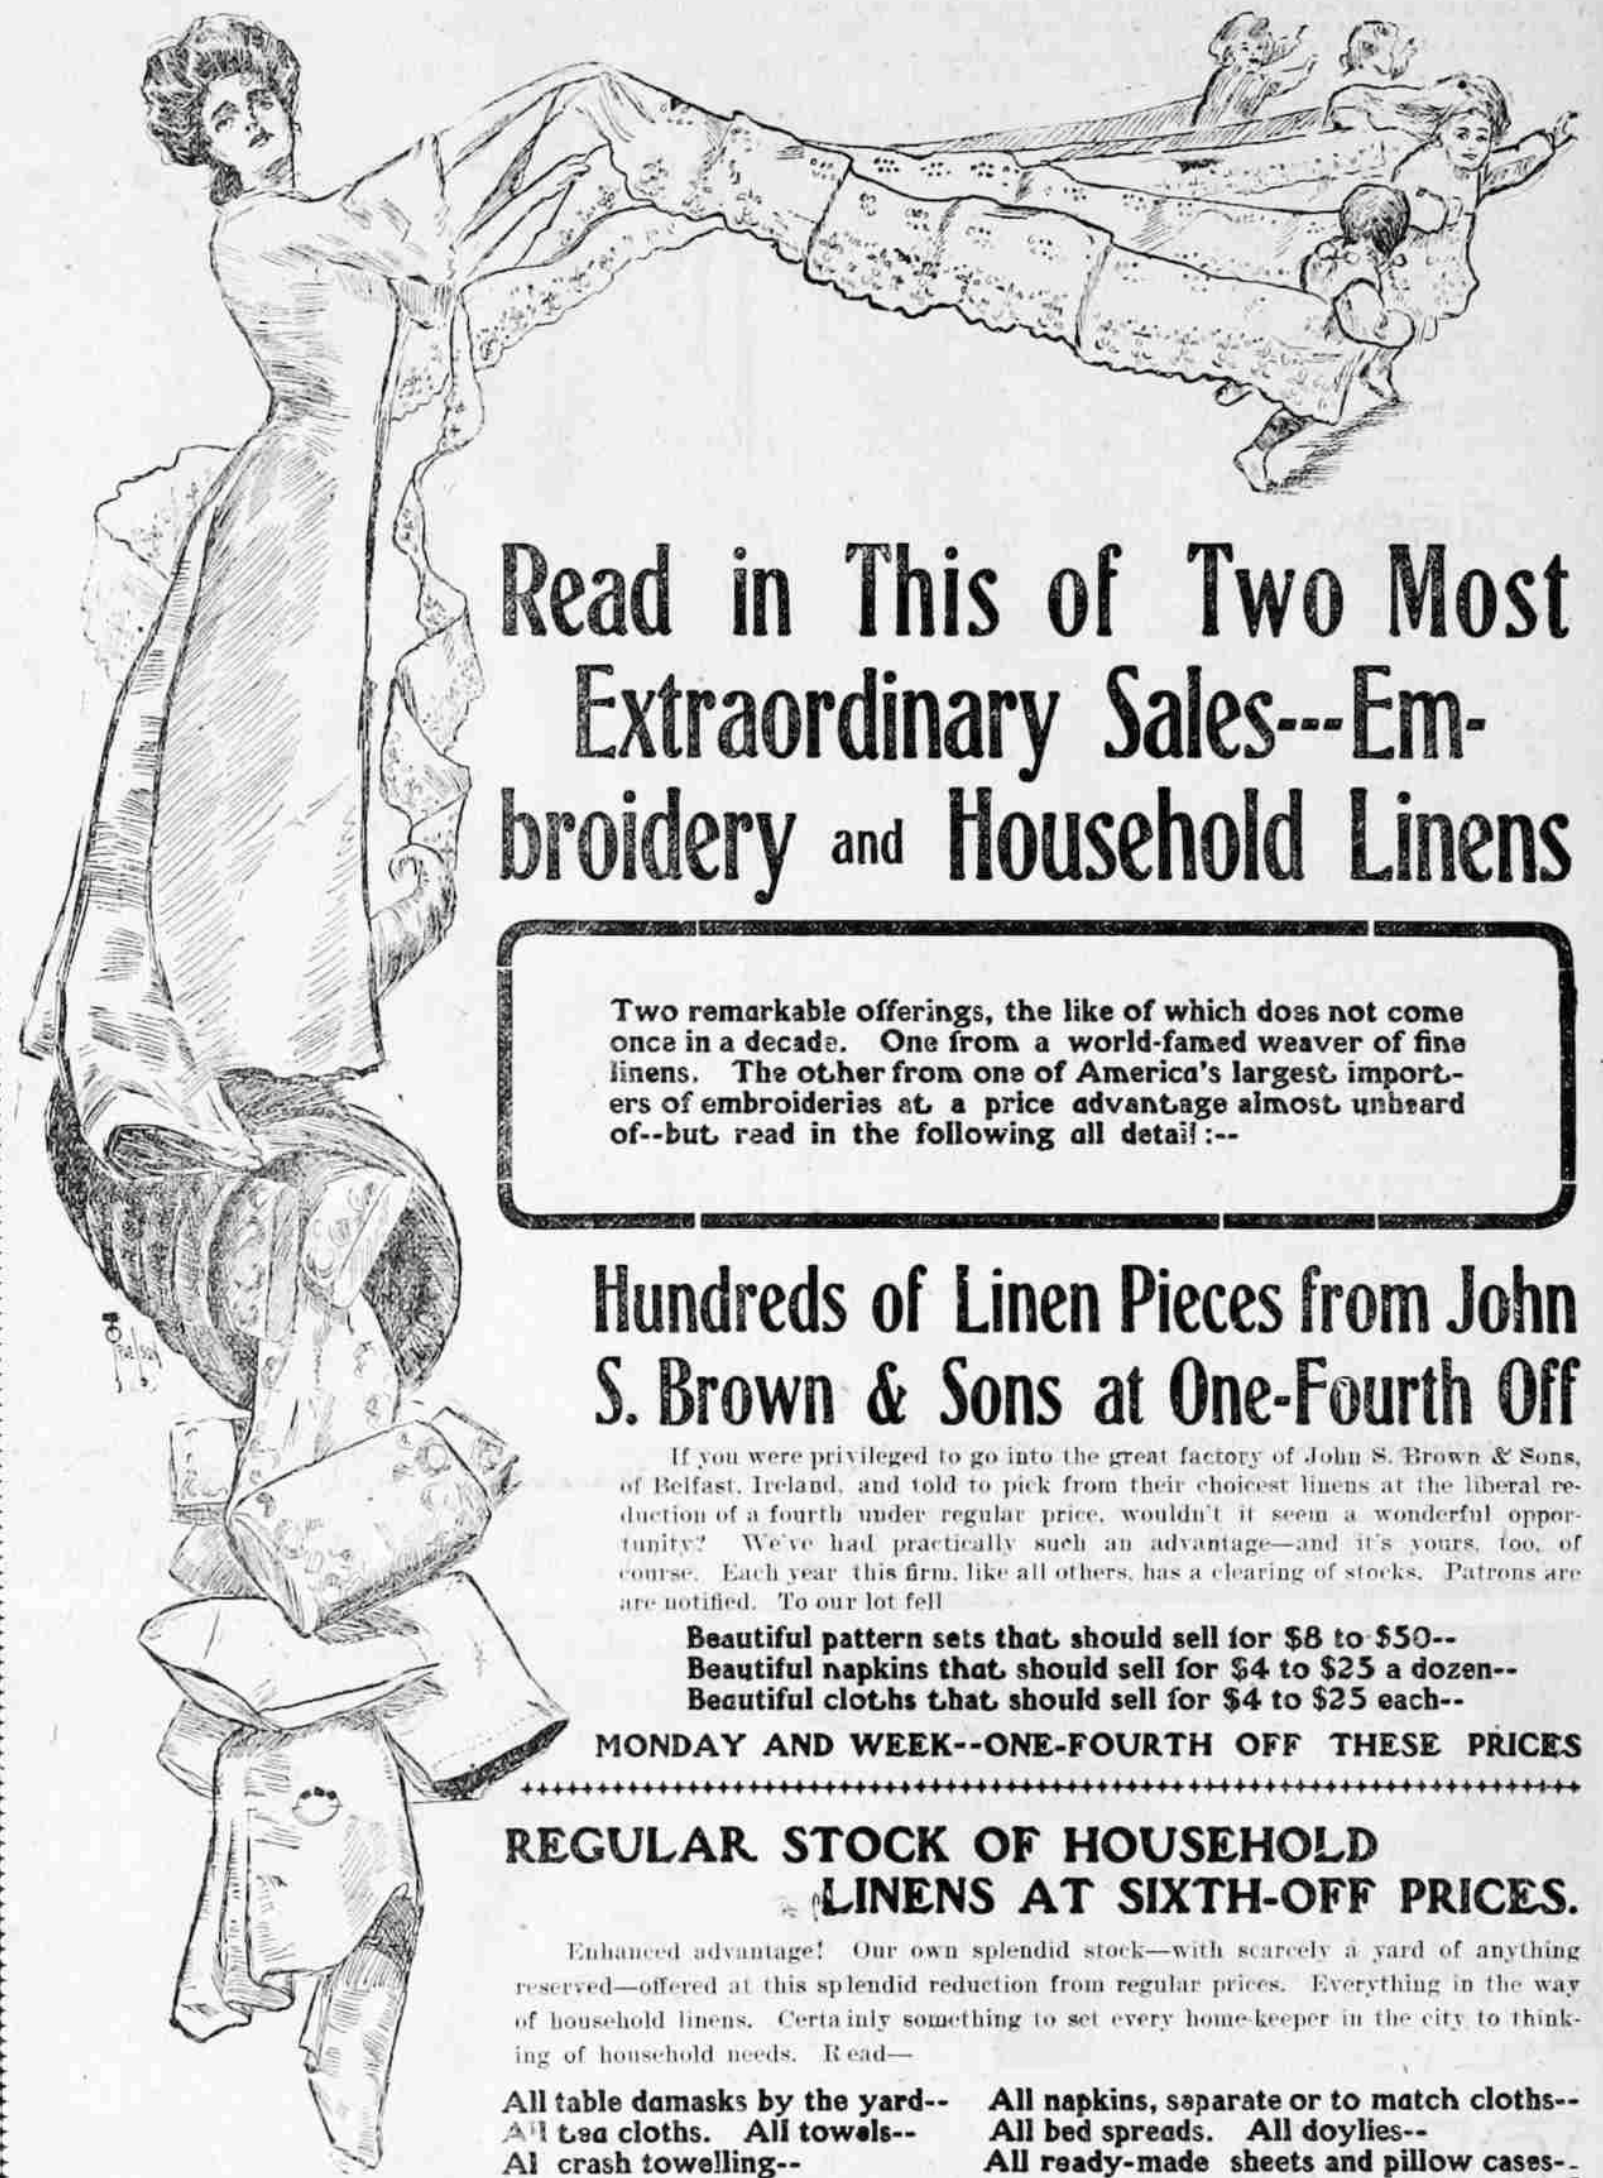

Mark McChrystal left on Tuesday for Palo Alto to resume his studies at Stanford university.

Mrs. E. J. Dockery has returned to her home in Boise, after a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. D. C. Roberts.

Will Davis and Fairchild Sherman left yesterday for Berkeley to resume their studies at the University of California.

Mrs. John F. Cowan and children leave the latter part of the week for

WALKER'S STORE

Read in This of Two Most Extraordinary Sales---Embroidery and Household Linens

Two remarkable offerings, the like of which does not come once in a decade. One from a world-famed weaver of fine linens. The other from one of America's largest importers of embroideries at a price advantage almost unheard of—but read in the following all detail:—

Hundreds of Linen Pieces from John S. Brown & Sons at One-Fourth Off

If you were privileged to go into the great factory of John S. Brown & Sons, of Belfast, Ireland, and to pick from their choicest linens at the liberal reduction of a fourth under regular price, wouldn't it seem a wonderful opportunity? We've had practically such an advantage—and it's yours, too, of course. Each year this firm, like all others, has a clearing of stocks. Patrons are notified. To our lot fell

Beautiful pattern sets that should sell for $8 to $50--
Beautiful napkins that should sell for $4 to $25 a dozen--
Beautiful cloths that should sell for $4 to $25 each--

MONDAY AND WEEK--ONE-FOURTH OFF THESE PRICES

REGULAR STOCK OF HOUSEHOLD LINENS AT SIXTH-OFF PRICES.

Enhanced advantage! Our own splendid stock—with scarcely a yard of anything reserved—offered at this splendid reduction from regular prices. Everything in the way of household linens. Certainly something to set every home-keeper in the city to thinking of household needs. Read—

All table damasks by the yard--
All tea cloths. All towels--
All crash towelling--
All napkins, separate or to match cloths--
All bed spreads. All doilies--
All ready-made sheets and pillow cases--

HAVE ONE-SIXTH TAKEN OFF REGULAR PRICES.

Embroidery Sale--The Greatest That Has Happened Yet!

10c embroideries--5c a yard.
20c embroideries--10c a yard.
30c embroideries--15c a yard.
40c and 50c embroideries--20c a yard.

60c and 75c flouncings--25c a yard.
$1 and $1.25 flouncings--35c a yard.
$1.50 and $1.75 flouncings--50c a yard.
$2, $2.50 and $3 flouncings--75c a yard.

Ever hear or read of such values? We wot not. A maker "had to" be rid of his stock. We were on the ground to bargain for spot cash. Thousands and thousands of yards we bought. Plenty to make a whole week's spirited selling. Swiss and cambric edgings, insertions, flouncings--
Fresh and new as can be--
Beautiful patterns--
Come Monday and all the week.

White Wash Goods--One-Sixth Off Regular Prices.

All white India linens. All nainsooks--
All Persian lawns. All messalies--

All organdies. All swisses--
All Maderia cambrics. All Paris muslins--

12½c Up to $1.00 a Yard Goods--ONE-SIXTH OFF THESE PRICES.

All White Wool Dress Goods--One-Fourth Off Regular Prices

Entire stock to choose from. Remember the popularity of white—a dress now is right, for spring it will certainly be right and your separate skirt or coat of white you'll wear all summer. The stock is still remarkably complete with sheer to heavier fabrics as the following tells--

Crepes, Crystals, Voiles, Mistrals--
Eolians, London Twines, Batistes, Broadcloths--
Serges, Granites, Albatross, Noppes--

Mon reve, Lansdowne, Bedford Cords, and others--
50c up to $4.50 a yard fabrics, Monday
and week--One-Fourth Off these Prices.

No samples cut during sale.

Walker Brothers Dry Goods Co. Walker Brothers Dry Goods Co.

(Continued on page 20)